

2022 ON-SITE WITH INSIGHT (“OSWI”)

Annual Loudoun History Series in the Field in Two Parts, Spring-Fall, 2022

Thursday evenings 6:30-9:30 Part I (1699-1861): April 7-May 19

Part II (1861-1980): October 6-November 17

Are you new to the area? Are you curious about Loudoun’s history? Do you see things on Loudoun’s historic landscape and wonder what and why they are? Are you interested in making sense of our Northern Virginia heritage while tying the themes of our past with how things are today? Then this INTIMATE explore-by-NIGHT field trip-based series is just right for you! Come as a couple or a single!

Join Virginia Piedmont Heritage Area Historian Emeritus Rich Gillespie to learn, visit, and discuss with other Loudouners our historic landscape. Our 13-part series will get you out of the house and in to a new and vibrant history-loving community.

$250 per person for the full 2-session series, $150 for fall or spring session

REGISTRATION BEGINS MARCH 1, 2022 and fills quickly!

REGISTRATION: http://apm.activecommunities.com/novaparks/Activity_Search/5872

Call Tracy Gillespie at NOVA Parks, (703) 327-9777 for registration help & info

Sponsored by
NOVA Parks

The Northern Virginia Regional Park Authority

